Keynote Speaker – Bro. David Dickson

Bro. David will be speaking to the WMA ladies about the unique contributions that women have made, and are making, as they serve alongside their husbands on the mission field. Often overlooked, the “quiet ministries” of single women and wives continue to have an eternal impact on a multitude of children and women who often respond to the “softer” touch of the gospel message modeled by Christian women. It should come as no surprise that the men who serve as BMAA missionaries are quick to credit their wives for their success at spreading the gospel around the world.

In Jerusalem – in the home – Diana Morris

I am a retired elementary music teacher, and I loved that mission field so much I am now a substitute teacher. My home church is Union Hill Baptist in Brownsboro, TX where I teach 4–5-year-olds Sunday School and K-5th graders on Wednesday nights. My greatest joy is my family where I have a daughter who is a nurse and a son who resides in heaven with my husband of 50 years before God called him home also. I love being Grammy to my eight grands and great Grammy to one grand. I will be sharing about sharing our home and our family.

In Judea – in your community – Terrie Triplet

Terrie is a member of First Baptist Church, McNeil, Arkansas, where she has served for many years in many positions, particularly within the GMA group. She will be speaking on being a witness in her community where she has served as mayor for 8 years.

In Samaria – in our nation – Dr. John Adams

America is in a "Valley of Decision" as Joel 3:14 declared in the Old Testament. We recognize the desire by satanic forces to silence the voice of Christ and His church. A recent video, "Speechless - Silencing the Christians" a joint effort of the Inspirational Network and the American Family Association vividly portrays this. But we that believe in Godly, Biblical convictions cannot sit idly by - our voice must be heard. BMA churches believe in the home, morality, the Bible, the church, and the greatness and power of God.

Uttermost parts of the earth – Shelly Dickson

David and I were missionaries for 50 years. We served in Nicaragua, El Salvador, Honduras, Guatemala and Puerto Rico. Our four children grew up on the mission field and were a large part of our ministry. I will be discussing how to reach the uttermost parts of the world. I look forward to sharing my experiences and also learning from you ladies.
